FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Friday, Aug. 28, 2015 at approximately 1317 hrs, Avon Police Dispatch received a 911 call from a motorist at Costco Wholesale (35804 Detroit Road, Avon) reporting that a male was waving a gun at her in the handicap parking area on the east side of the store. Caller reported that the male then left the area.

Avon Police Officers were dispatched to Costco and were able to find the suspects empty vehicle parked in a handicap spot on the north side of Costco. Avon Officers checked inside Costco Wholesale where they made contact with the suspect and took him into custody without incident. The male was transported by Avon Officers to the police station where he was booked and charged with two (2) counts of Aggravated Menacing, Misdemeanor's of the First Degree. The male is currently in the process of posting bond.

This incident appeared to have started as a traffic altercation that had occurred prior to both vehicles entering onto Costco Wholesale property.

Person Arrested: Paul D. Flesher, 64 year old male from Grafton, Ohio.
