

AVON POLICE AND AVON HIGH SCHOOL TO HOST “HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT”

Looks can be deceiving.

That’s the message behind a unique traveling exhibit created by the Bath and Copley Township Police Departments. The display is called “Hidden in Plain Sight.” The departments constructed what appears to be at first glance the bedroom of the average teenager. But amidst the clutter of clothing scattered on the floor, school supplies on a desk and personal care products on a vanity are more than 150 items that can actually be signals that a young person could be involved in risky, dangerous and even illegal activity.

“Hidden in Plain Sight” will be on display at Avon High School Auditorium on Thursday, January 5th, 2017. Doors open for browsing at 6 p.m. The exhibit is open to adults only. There is no charge for admittance, but donations to keep the program going will be accepted. If you cannot arrive at the designated start time, join us when you can.

The audience is encouraged to explore and interact with items in the display which may be indicative that a teenager is involved in substance abuse, underage drinking, eating disorders, sexual activity and more. Participants will be enlightened, educated and astonished.

For further information, contact Avon Police School Resource Officer Sullivan at psullivan@avonpd.com or 440-934-1234.

Over 150 items which may be indicative of dangerous risky behaviors are placed throughout the display made to resemble a teenager's bedroom.

Can you identify the 20 items on this vanity that might be associated with substance abuse, sexual activity, eating disorders and cutting?
